

Mrs Wainwright

Mrs Wainwright has been at Abbotsholme for 36 years. She came here straight from teacher training college and has done many different jobs.

She is now our deputy head and is retiring this summer.

One of the things that makes the school so special is the learning skills department which was created by Mrs Wainwright and she started to help children who are dyslexic and just struggling with spelling and sentences.

Mrs Wainwright always has time to help people and always has a kind heart. I have never known her to be nasty or horrid.

Mrs Wainwright has been a house parent a long time ago. The six formers said she was like a mum to them, and she gave them toast and jam if they missed breakfast. They said that they had never seen her be unkind to anyone not even them.

And Mrs Wainwright always does a very good chapel and says the good things first and then the not so good things last. When it comes to days like Red Nose Day when we are raising money from the cup cakes and from Valentine's Day and loads of other great things too, Mrs Wainwright spends all her time preparing these activities so that we can have fun and also raise money for charities for people who don't have clothes and clean water.

Mrs Wainwright took charge of the discipline for the Rose Yard first form French play and took charge of the people back stage so that they weren't naughty. They said somebody had to do it and they were so happy when Mrs Wainwright said that she would do it.

Everyone will miss Mrs Wainwright: she is such a lovely and caring person and some of the old teachers that have been here a long time and have known her a long time will be quite sad she is leaving.

She must be happy that she is retiring because she has been here for 36 years and trust me that's a long time!
