

ABBOTSHOLME SCHOOL

IDENTIFICATION OF CANDIDATES
DURING
EXAM SESSIONS

A file is kept in the main examination room of photographs of all internal candidates sitting examinations. This enables the invigilating staff to confirm the identity of candidates if required.

Candidates sitting their examinations in the Learning Skills Department are known to the staff conducting the examinations and therefore no photographic record is required.

External candidates provide photographic identification before they commence their examinations.

November 2015

